October 16, 1968

Dear Hal:

It will be most inconvenient for me to have a guest in my home at this time, due to a strange series of "haps" the details of which can not be discussed at this writing.

I trust that you will not be too inconvenienced by this unavoidable change in plans.

Sincerely,

Marge Jerome -